“To be a part of the Temple family is to be a part of something larger than yourself.”
—Temple member since 2011

Hineinu...We are Here.
We are here when a member celebrates their bris, baby naming or 90th birthday.

Temple De Hirsch Sinai is a large, diverse, multi-campus Reform Jewish congregation in the greater Seattle area and provides leadership in promoting Jewish ethical and moral concepts.
Our historic 116-year-old congregation creates a progressive and contemporary Jewish environment providing worship, education, lifecycle events, community building, and community service opportunities to all of our members, while upholding the traditional values of our past.

We stand together in worship and study to form a vibrant, diverse and caring community within.
We honor the traditions of our past and look forward to shape our future.

“While growing up at Temple, I forged bonds with clergy, with peers, and with lay leaders who have supported me, taught me, and opened me up to opportunities and personal growth that I never could have imagined. I have built lifelong friendships all while enjoying programming and social action opportunities that I wouldn’t have elsewhere and with a group of people that I consider family.”
—Lifelong Temple member

We work together to help our neighbors in need and support the larger community beyond our Temple walls. We pursue the sacred work of tikkun olam and take action to help change the world.

“Our children’s lives have been deeply intertwined with Temple De Hirsch Sinai for many years.
Starting with the foundation built at Jennifer Rosen Meade Preschool, to Hebrew School and Sunday School, Bar and Bat Mitzvah training, Tuesday night young adult programming, Madrich duties and Camp Kalsman, our kids’ holistic experience with Temple is leading to a lifelong commitment to Jewish culture and values.”
