About the Federation

The Federation leads a strong Jewish Puget Sound by serving as a community voice, strengthening connections to Israel and World Jewry, and making investments in Jewish life, for today and the next generation.

Safety

The Federation's SAFE Washington initiative ensures the safety of Jewish communities by providing vital security resources and close partnerships with local law enforcement and national security agencies.

Advocacy

Through the Jewish Community Relations Council (JCRC), the Federation combats antisemitism, builds community partnerships, and advocates with legislators to protect Jewish life. By working with policymakers and educating leaders, we ensure Jewish voices are heard. The JCRC's mission is to protect Jewish values, rights, and freedoms.

Community

The Federation unites the Jewish community across generations and denominations, supporting community events, leadership development, summer camp scholarships, young family programming, PJ Library®, and much more. These efforts ensure that Jewish traditions, values, and identities are celebrated and passed down through every stage of life, creating a vibrant and lasting Jewish future in Greater Seattle.

Am Yisrael

The Federation supports Jews globally, especially in times of crisis. By providing aid, strengthening ties with Israel, and cultivating unity among Jews worldwide, we make sure no one stands alone, reinforcing the resilience of the Jewish people.

Why Become a Federation Sponsor

Philanthropy is Good Business

Every dollar invested in the Jewish Federation of Greater Seattle strengthens Jewish life in our region and beyond—while aligning your brand with a trusted leader in community impact.

By sponsoring the Federation, your company demonstrates its commitment to diversity, inclusion, and community resilience, while gaining visibility among engaged leaders, professionals, and families across Greater Seattle. Together, we can ensure a vibrant, thriving Jewish future for all.

When you invest in the Federation, your company gains visibility among Jewish community members in Greater Seattle and across Washington State. Through frequent email campaigns, active social media engagement, and well-attended events year-round, the Federation offers broad and meaningful reach.
